Gospel Message

Today's Gospel begins with the beautiful words of some Greeks who came to Jerusalem: "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." These words express the desire of every human heart—to know Jesus, to encounter Him, and to experience His love. Jesus responds with the image of a grain of wheat: "Unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit."

The grain of wheat represents Jesus. He knows that His hour has come—the hour of His Passion, Death, and Resurrection. Through His death on the Cross, Jesus gives new life and salvation to the world. His Cross teaches us that sacrifice and self-giving love lead to true life. As Christians, we too are called to "die" to ourselves—to selfishness, pride, anger, jealousy, hatred, and unforgiveness. When we surrender these things to God, we become capable of producing good fruit.

Jesus says, "Whoever serves me must follow me." Following Jesus means not only attending Mass and receiving the Sacraments but also living our faith every day. We follow Him when we forgive others, care for the sick and elderly, help those in need, support our families, and serve our parish community. Every sacrifice made with love can become a seed of blessing. A parent's sacrifice for a child, a spouse's forgiveness, a parishioner's service, or a simple act of kindness can produce wonderful fruit in the lives of others.

A Christian life is not a life lived only for oneself. A life given to God and others becomes a fruitful life. Let us therefore ask the Lord for the grace to become like the grain of wheat—willing to sacrifice, serve, forgive, and love. May our families and our parish become places where people can truly encounter Jesus.
