Gospel Message

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

A father once had to leave his family for work in another country. Before leaving, he hugged his little daughter and said, "I will come back. I cannot tell you exactly when, but I promise I will come." Every evening the little girl would look through the window whenever she heard a car. Her mother once asked, "Why do you keep looking outside?" She replied, "Because Daddy said he would come back. I want to be ready when he comes." Months later, one evening, a car stopped in front of the house. The father stepped out. The little girl ran through the door and jumped into his arms. She had been waiting not with fear, but with love.

This is the message of today's Gospel. Jesus says, "Stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come." Jesus is not trying to frighten us. He is reminding us that our life is precious and that we should not postpone what really matters.

We often say, "Tomorrow I will pray more. Someday I will forgive. Later I will go to confession. When I have more time, I will spend time with my family. One day I will become closer to God."

But Jesus tells us: Do not wait for tomorrow. Live for God today.

Jesus speaks about the days of Noah. People were eating, drinking, marrying and continuing their ordinary lives. Their problem was not that these things were bad. Their problem was that they became so busy with ordinary life that they forgot God.

The same can happen to us. We can become busy with work, money, our homes, phones, entertainment, children's activities and many responsibilities. We may have time for everything but very little time for God and for one another.

Suppose Jesus told you, "Tonight I am coming to your home." We would probably clean the house and prepare a beautiful meal. But Jesus might say, "I am not looking at your house. I am looking at your heart. Is your heart ready for Me?" Perhaps there is someone you have not forgiven. Forgive today. Perhaps you have hurt someone. Ask forgiveness today.

Perhaps prayer has disappeared from your family. Begin again today. Perhaps someone in your family needs your time more than your money. Sit with that person today. Perhaps you have been away from confession or the Eucharist. Come back to Jesus. Being ready for Jesus does not mean doing extraordinary things. It means doing ordinary things with extraordinary love.

A mother caring for her children with love is preparing for Jesus. A father sacrificing for his family is preparing for Jesus. A child obeying and respecting parents is preparing for Jesus. A person forgiving an enemy is preparing for Jesus. Someone quietly helping a person in need is preparing for Jesus.

Brothers and sisters, we do not know when our Lord will come. We do not even know what tomorrow will bring. But we know what we can do today.

Pray today. Forgive today. Love today. Help someone today.

Tell your family you love them today. Come closer to Jesus today.

Then whenever the Lord comes, we will not have to be afraid. Like that little girl waiting at the window for her father, we can run toward Him with joy.

Lord Jesus, keep our hearts awake. Help us to live every day in Your love, so that whenever You come, You may find us ready to welcome You with joy. Amen.
